Relocation of business from Ukraine to Poland

Due to the armed conflict in Ukraine, many companies operating there have faced the necessity to relocate their business abroad.

Poland is one of the most frequently chosen locations by Ukrainian entrepreneurs, also due to the newly introduced legislative facilitation.

Currently, 21,836 companies with Ukrainian capital operate in Poland, and in 2022, even before Russia's military attack on Ukraine, 100 more such entities were registered. In the current situation, this number will certainly multiply in the near future.

The Polish government and non-governmental organisations undertake numerous initiatives aimed at supporting Ukrainian citizens fleeing the war and helping Ukrainian entrepreneurs to relocate their companies to Poland.

The most important facilitations for Ukrainian citizens in Poland

Facilitation of legalisation of residence:

- Possibility of legal work for 18 months for those fleeing from armed conflict, provided their stay in Poland is legalised
- Free access to health care system
- Free education for children

Simplification of the procedure of employing persons from Ukraine:

- Possibility of employment on the basis of a declaration of entrustment of work
- Extension of periods of legal residence
- Possibility of registration in the Labour Office
- Access to training and vocational counselling

Establishing a company in Poland

Entrepreneurs from Ukraine have the possibility to open a company or a branch in Poland. The most popular form of conducting business in Poland is a limited liability company (in Polish: spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością - sp. z o.o.).

Simple procedure for setting up a company:

- Possibility of online registration of the company
- Minimum share capital of the limited liability company amounts to PLN 5 000
- No restrictions concerning nationality of shareholders
